

Shawn Hedrick

Tennis Professional - Peter Burwash International (PBI)

Shawn Hedrick has 20 years serving in the tennis industry, gaining experience and expertise in all areas of coaching, program planning and administration, and court maintenance. He has recently joined Peter Burwash International (PBI), the world's premier tennis management company, and, like all new professionals, is completing a training program at PBI's headquarters facility in Texas.

Shawn was born and raised in Fort Myers, Florida, where he grew up playing tennis with his identical twin brother. As a junior player, Shawn attained a ranking in the top 20 in Florida and top 30 nationally. He went on to play Division I college tennis at David Lipscomb University in Nashville, Tennessee.

He began his coaching career in Fort Myers, serving as Head Professional at Fiddlesticks Country Club, also overseeing junior development and all league play for members. Thoroughly enjoying and committed to a tennis career, over the next 10 years Shawn went on to serve as a Director of Tennis for active country club programs in Naples, Florida, which included The Cascades, The Club at the Strand and Treviso Bay. Before joining PBI, he was most recently Director of Tennis & Fitness at World Tennis Club, where he oversaw all operations and programming for a 16-court facility.

In this capacity, he has gained expertise in all facets of court maintenance, including training and supervising the maintenance staff; administering instructional, competitive and social tennis events, as well as coordination of league teams, and being responsible for tennis budgets and forecasts. As a coach, he has had success teaching players of all ages and levels, as well as junior and league teams.

Shawn has been named USPTA District Professional of the Year, and while serving as USPTA District President for Collier County, the region was voted District of the Year by the USPTA Florida Board of Directors.

Always seeking to be the best professional he can possibly be, Shawn is excited to be joining forces with Peter Burwash International, recognized internationally as the world's best tennis management company.
