

March 8, 2018

Recreation

Shawn Hedrick has been named tennis director at the Naples Grande Beach Resort to oversee daily operations and proceedings of the resort's tennis program and activations, under the direction of Peter Burwash International. Mr. Hedrick brings more than 19 years of professional tennis experience to help revive the Naples Grande tennis program after the effects of Hurricane Irma. Under his supervision, the property will resurface all 15 of its championship Har-Tru courts. The transformation will include new LED lighting for enhanced nighttime play visibility on five courts. Prior to joining the team at PBI and Naples Grande, he was director of tennis at the World Tennis Club in Naples. He previously was director of tennis at Treviso Bay TPC and The Club at the Strand, as well as district president to the United States Professional Tennis Association-Collier County branch.