Ongoing: World Cup mania has gripped the globe; here in Naples, the games have made their way onto restaurant big screens with promos to match. A fun one is at The French—it's showing all games, but when France plays, if you order an appetizer, you get a free glass of French Kronenbourg beer.

Ongoing: On Fridays, the Naples Grande's #BubbleQ Happy Hour at the alfresco Sunset Veranda features discounted flutes of Veuve and barbecue (with free valet) from 5-8 p.m.

Ongoing: Daily this summer, any child in elementary school who is seen reading a book at Bennett's Fresh Roast before 3 p.m. will receive a complimentary doughnut.

Ongoing: Wednesdays from 3-6 p.m., chef Kristina San Filippo is continuing her farmers market throughout the off-season at Purple Spoon Culinary; click here for a list of what's available each week.

June 29: Sanibel's Bleu Rendez-Vous French Bistro's cheekily named "Rhone Ranger" wine dinner features four pours and four courses.

July 4: Happy Fourth! If you're checking out the Naples Parade, it could be a good time to check out Sails Restaurant too. Open for a rare lunch hour, the elegant seafood restaurant will have its raw bar in service from 10 a.m. and its three-course early-dining summer prix fixe ($39) available starting at noon.

July 11: Shula's and the Naples Princess are teaming up for a sunset dinner cruise to benefit Collier Child Care Resources.

July 18: Recently inducted into TripAdvisor's Certificate of Excellence Hall of Fame, Brooks Gourmet Burgers and Dogs is offering 50 percent off all hot dogs in honor of National Hot Dog Day.

July 22: Indo-Lebanese Vegan Fest returns to 21 Spices; the lunch buffet is a collaboration between two of the Gulfshore's most exciting chefs, Asif Syed (21 Spices by Chef Asif) and Rachid Eido (Kareem's Lebanese Kitchen).
